

DOCTOR INSISTS HE IS STILL ALIVE

Deal Angry at Joker Who Published Notice of His Death and Might Strike Him If He Only Knew Who Did It.

FLOWERS AND CONDOLENCES

They Pour In at His Home, and at Recent Society Dinner He Attended Friends at First Mistook Him for a Ghost.

Mortimer Roland Beaudoin-Bennett, of No. 1433 Lexington avenue, is busy to-day trying to find the joker who caused the announcement of his death to be published. The advertisement read that the doctor, a pleasant young man whose friends say he resembles Harry Lehr, had died suddenly on Oct. 5 and that the funeral services and interment would be private. Everybody but the doctor saw the advertisement. Tuesday night, until last night his friends and his wife mourned him as dead. When the doctor went to the drug store, No. 100 William street last night, to attend a dinner of the "Marathon" men he was accepted first as a ghost, as the diners before sitting down had ordered a funeral service for him. When his fellow college men showed him the advertisement, the doctor seemed greatly affected and vowed vengeance. He also telegraphed to his wife at Hewlett, L. I., that he was not dead.

The doctor married the daughter of the Rev. Thomas W. Martin, of Hewlett, six years ago, but they have been separated two years.

"Of course, we are on very friendly terms," said the doctor to-day when he appeared at his home, in open-coat, bowler and a bath robe with forget-me-nots embroidered on it. "My wife and I correspond, and I know she must have been horribly grieved when she read of my death. Poor thing, it is terrible to have worried her. But I was quick to reassure her that I still live. It is just beastly, this kind of a joke. Don't you know, and I believe I could strike the person who did it. I never was so angry. All my friends are sending flowers and sad notes, and how can I answer them? It is a perfectly horrid predicament. Don't you know, to be alive when everybody thinks you are dead."

Among the acquaintances of Dr. Mortimer Roland Beaudoin-Bennett there was a rumor that he might have been injured in the advertisement itself, just as a joke, but, of course, that is impossible. The doctor's friend, J. P. Bennett, with whom he lives, had this comment to make: "It's some ivy thing damned medical students at the monkey-doodle business again, I guess."

MADE BIG FORTUNE IN ODD LITTLE RESTAURANT.

Fritz Uhlenhaut Left Fine Collection of Paintings and Books and $500,000.

Few of the business men who for many years have eaten their lunch in the quaint little restaurant at Maiden lane and Pearl street and counted Fritz Uhlenhaut, the proprietor, among their personal friends, knew that the jovial German had acquired a fortune. It was learned after his funeral yesterday that his property was worth $500,000 or more, and that the entire building in which he had his restaurant belonged to him.

Almost penniless, Uhlenhaut came to this country when a young man and settled in New York. He and his frugal wife opened the restaurant at Maiden lane and Pearl street forty years ago. Many prominent men in the financial district went there to luncheon, and grew to anticipate the few pleasant words with the genial host, who was always there.

The fortune of the Uhlenhauts grew rapidly. The building in which the restaurant was located was bought, and they continued to occupy two of the upper floors as their home. They only laughed at the suggestion that they should move northward with the population.

Only those who were admitted to the home knew of Uhlenhaut's passion for rare books and paintings. They were his only luxury, and he spent thousands of dollars to gratify his tastes. The walls of the home are covered with rare paintings by famous artists and the shelves in his library contain many beautifully bound volumes.

Mrs. Uhlenhaut will continue to live in the old home and the restaurant will not be closed. One son is Fritz Uhlenhaut, Jr., who is chief engineer for the Pittsburgh Railway Company.

MILLENNIUM HERE FOR CATS AND DOGS

Bide-a-Wee Home Club for Anything of Either Class Established Near Yonkers by the Kind Hearted.

Heck! heck! How the little dogs bark And the kitties are meowing with glee. Up to Yonkers they trot, For they've found a soft spot At the home of the Club Bide-a-Wee.

Bug House Ballads.

All the stray dogs and homeless cats of Manhattan are trekking north to-day, for kind-hearted persons living in Yonkers have opened a home for them where they will be well fed and where all their little ills will be attended to free of charge.

The Bide-a-Wee Home Club is the name of the organization and the home is situated two miles north of Yonkers, Salt air and high ground are among the advantages of the place. Forty-seven sick dogs and ailing cats were entered upon the official list of the place to-day. If a hungry hound takes offense at the moon and howls under your window, or the felines of the neighborhood lift up their souls in melody on the back fence, just notify the officers of the Bide-a-Wee. It is the opinion of these officers that cats and dogs do not howl or make a noise unless they are sick or hungry.

Mrs. Harry Hylles Kibbe, Vice-President of the new club, does not believe in putting suffering animals to death. Make broken legs, broken ribs and other ills of the cats and humans, say the Bide-a-Wees, why not in cats and dogs. At any rate they will do their best to prove this to be the case, and neither age, pedigree nor lack of it will be a bar to the home. The changeable pup will be as welcome as the costly toy spaniel or the pampered poodle of a Fifth avenue belle.

ACCUSES STRIKERS OF BEATING HIM

James Dawson, Glass Beveler, Has Three of His Former Fellow-Workmen Arrested on a Charge of Felonious Assault.

James Dawson, a glass beveler, appeared in the Ewen Street Court, Williamsburg, to-day against three strikers whom he charged had beaten him insensate for going to work to keep his wife and children from starving.

Three months ago the employees of Vogley & Lackman's glass works, at Union avenue and Jackson street, Brooklyn, went on strike because a number of foreigners were put in the factory to learn the trade.

Dawson received $3 a week from the union for a while, but it was not sufficient to provide for his family, and Mrs. Dawson had to draw on her savings. When these were exhausted by the union stopped paying benefits, Dawson saw nothing but starvation ahead and his striking colleagues he would have to go back to work. They warned him that to do so would be dangerous.

He applied for his old place and obtained it. Morning and night he was followed to and from work by pickets. Tuesday evening he was waylaid and brutally assaulted. He was found unconscious on the street and taken home. His face and hands are in a shocking condition but he managed to get to Magistrate O'Reilly, who promptly issued warrants against three of the strikers, whom Dawson identified among his assailants.

ACCIDENT DELAYED WEDDING

Bride Failed to Arrive in Time, but Marriage Feast Went On.

A trolley car came near breaking up a wedding as well as a vegetable cart, but despite a delayed bride all came to a happy termination and the former Mrs. Mary Donovan is now Mrs. Patrick McNally, while her three children are making friends with an equal number of youthful McNallys.

The guests were all assembled in St. Mary's Church, Bayonne. The bridegroom and his best man and the attendants for the bride were all there, but the bride did not arrive. The minutes seemed hours to McNally, and at last in despair he suggested that they all go over to his sister's house to the feast, even though there had been no wedding.

In the midst of the rather mournful repeat the bride burst in the door all out of breath and greatly excited. She had missed her train and the trolley car ran into a cart and was delayed for a long time, while she fumed and fretted. McNally was jubilant and the feast was forgotten while the guests all returned to the church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Whalen and all went back with better appetites.

Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure

Costs Nothing if It Fails.

Any honest person who suffers from Rheumatism is welcome to this offer. For years I searched everywhere to find a specific for Rheumatism. For nearly 20 years I worked to this end. At last, in Germany, my search was rewarded. I found a costly chemical that did not disappoint me as other Rheumatic prescriptions had disappointed physicians everywhere.

I do not mean that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure can turn bones into fish again. That is impossible. But it will drive from the blood the poison that causes pain and swelling, and then that is the end of Rheumatism. I know this so well that I will furnish for a full month my Rheumatic Cure on trial. I cannot cure all cases within a month. It would be unreasonable to expect that. But most cases will yield within 30 days. This trial treatment will convince you that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure is a power against Rheumatism—a potent force against disease that is irresistible.

My offer is made to convince you of my faith. My faith is but the outcome of experience—of actual knowledge. I know what it can do. And I know this so well that I will furnish my remedy on trial. Simply write me a postal for my book on Rheumatism. I will then arrange with a druggist in your vicinity so that you can secure six bottles of Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure to make the test. You may take it a full month on trial. If it succeeds the cost to you is $5.00. If it fails the loss is mine and mine alone. It will be left entirely to you. I mean that exactly. If you say the trial is not satisfactory I don't expect a penny from you.

I have no samples. Any mere sample that can affect chronic Rheumatism must be drugged to the verge of danger. I use no such drugs. For it is dangerous to take them. You must get the disease out of your system by experience. In all of my 2000 tests, I never found another remedy that would cure the disease. Write me and I will send you the book. Try my remedy for a month, for it can't harm you anyway. If it fails the loss is mine. Address Dr. Shoop, Box 651, Racine, Wis. Mild cases not chronic are often cured by one or two bottles. At all druggists.

HACKING COUGH

Is painful and often results in bronchitis, asthma, pneumonia and grippe unless promptly checked. Throat and lung diseases are quickly cured by

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP

THE ONE THAT CURES

I had a very bad cold; I read of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, thought I would try it, and the first bottle stopped my cough. I have used three bottles now and am entirely cured, and I can recommend it to anybody as the best cough medicine in the world. Mrs. Carrie Schuster, 498 Genesee St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Thousands of doctors and hospitals use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in cases of hoarseness, bronchitis, influenza, grippe and pulmonary diseases.

AVOID SUBSTITUTES. A druggist's Tar or White Pine mixture is never as good as Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. He cannot make a remedy as effective. Insist on having the genuine with the "Bull's Head" trade-mark. It is the only cough syrup that always cures. Price 25c, 50c, and $1.00. Cheap substitutes are dangerous! A. C. Meyer & Co., Baltimore, Md.
